

How To Pay For College and Get That Money Back While at the Same Time Building Your Retirement!

SECOND ANNUAL EVENT! Sponsored By: Subaru of America, Shaver Subaru and Educational Funding Solutions

If you're a parent of a student that is planning on attending college in the next few years, you've got some new challenges. Come join us at a COMPLIMENTARY WORKSHOP where you will learn:

- How to send your child to the college of their choice without spending your life's savings, sacrificing your current lifestyle, or your retirement.
- The one single mistake over 90% of all parents make that costs them thousands ...and they don't even realize it. PLUS, how you can avoid the same mistake.
- The greatest myths about planning for college – and why listening to other parents will cost you.
- The amazing way some parents put their kids through college, and end up in better shape than when they started – even though they hadn't saved a nickel for college.
- How to build up retirement and get back the money you paid for college!

NOTE:

If you think you make too much money to get any aid (or that's what you've been told), you absolutely MUST attend this workshop to learn the shocking truth. There really is hope, despite what you've heard.

At this workshop, Dennis Stewart, one of the top college planners in California, will reveal astonishing ways to beat the high cost of college that the colleges are not telling you – BUT smart parents here in the Conejo Valley are using to pay very little for college. In fact, hundreds who have attended our workshops have discovered new secrets and cash flow strategies to send their children to schools they never thought they could afford!

Business Owners: Learn strategies for your children and those of your employees!
